Moorup is able to buyback all major and non-major mobility hardware brands and your devices with value is paid onto your Telstra mobile account.

About the Moorup Solution

- In Australia, the amount of e-waste we create is growing up to three times faster than general waste
- Telstra has partnered with Moorup, an Australian circular economy company
- Moorup provide a hardware lifecycle solution for Enterprise, Government and Business customers
- Offering an end to end solution for upgraded, unused and end-of-life Smartphones, Tablets and ICT equipment through buy-back, reuse, recycling and donations
- Scalable options from 1 + devices with flexible collection to suit your business needs

The benefits to your business

- Unused Hardware holds Residual Value: Extract the value of your upgraded, unused and end-of-life hardware through buyback
- Reduce hardware Refresh Costs: Credits are applied to your Telstra Mobile Account to offset some of your future expenses
- Achieve Corporate Sustainability Goals: For hardware that doesn't have any value. They are responsibly and securely recycled, at the end of the process you receive an environmental benefit summary
- Reduce Security Risk: Secure ISO and NIST compliant Data Erasure and Diagnostic Tools and processes. All erasures are verified and certified through a summary certificate of erasure
